

WEEK 5

Table of Contents:

- OBJECTIVE CASE PRONOUNS
- USE OF THE OBJECTIVE CASE

TEACHER'S NOTES: Students need lots of review time to really comprehend and remember all of the grammar pertaining to PRONOUNS. Having students write out the PRONOUN charts which correlate to the charts used in foreign language study helps them to remember.

MONDAY - Week 5

New Vocabulary Words 81-100

Distribute the vocabulary list, read the words, answer any questions that students might have and point out any unusual or difficult words or definitions.

COMPUTER GRAMMAR LESSON:

www.Englishgrammarhelp.com Students are to focus on OBJECTIVE CASE PRONOUNS.

PRONOUNS to be used for objects are called OBJECTIVE CASE.

Singular	Plural
ME	US
YOU	YOU (plural)
HIM HER IT	THEM

©2003 Grammar Mechanics™

NOTEBOOK GRAMMAR LESSON:

Draw the PRONOUN chart for OBJECTIVE CASE PRONOUNS. Students should fill in the chart with the OBJECTIVE CASE PRONOUNS.

ME, YOU, HIM, HER, IT, US, YOU, THEM

	PRONOUN	CHART
	NOMINATIVE CASE	OBJECTIVE CASE
	(SINGULAR)	(SINGULAR)
1st Person	I	ME
2nd Person	YOU	YOU
3rd Person	HE, SHE, IT	HIM, HER, IT
	(PLURAL)	(PLURAL)
1st Person	WE	US
2nd Person	YOU	YOU
3rd Person	THEY	THEM

Definition: OBJECTIVE CASE PRONOUNS: These PRONOUNS are used for DIRECT and INDIRECT OBJECTS of sentences, OBJECT OF PREPOSITIONS, (and SUBJECTS of INFINITIVES.) They will learn about Subject of Infinitives in a later chapter when they are ready.)

MONDAY – Week 5 - HOMEWORK: Objective Case
Draw and fill in a PRONOUN chart with both the NOMINATIVE AND OBJECTIVE CASE PRONOUNS.

Complete the following sentences.

- 1) Bring the tickets for (he/him)_____ and (she/her)_____. (him, her)
- 2) Did you see (she/her) _____ or
(I/me)_____ at the party? (her, me)
- 3) We saw you and (them/they)_____ scuba diving
this morning. (them)
- 4) You should ask (she/her)_____ if she knows
(he/him)_____. (her, him)
- 5) Give the firecrackers to (he/him)_____ and (me/I)_____. (him, me)

TEACHER'S NOTE: Continue to emphasize that NOMINATIVE and OBJECTIVE CASE PRONOUNS correlate to the SUBJECTS and DIRECT OBJECTS of a sentence.

	PRONOUN	CHART
	NOMINATIVE CASE	OBJECTIVE CASE
	(SINGULAR)	(SINGULAR)
1st Person
2nd Person
3rd Person
	(PLURAL)	(PLURAL)
1st Person
2nd Person
3rd Person

TUESDAY - Week 5

VOCABULARY QUIZ Words 81-85

It is very important that students continue to review the very basics as the class moves forward with new concepts. By the time they get to the more complicated material, they will have a complete grasp of the basics and will begin to apply them to their writing.

Tuesday - Grammar quiz – Correct the incorrect PRONOUNS in these sentences.

1. If Jack and her were going to go, them would be here by now. (she and they)
2. Him and she will be the first to crash their boards. (He)
3. She and them will help clean up after the party. (They)
4. Him and me will carry all the food to the beach. (He and I)
5. You, him, and her should pick up all that trash you left. (he and she)

COMPUTER GRAMMAR LESSON:

www.Englishgrammarhelp.com GM Grammar Lesson – Review PRONOUNS game.

NOTEBOOK GRAMMAR LESSON:

Writing Rule: Always list yourself as the last PRONOUN when used with other NOUNS or PRONOUNS and the last in a series. Sample:

The board was built by him, her, and me.

Give the passes to Jim, Dylan, and me (not me, Jim and Dylan.)

TUESDAY- HOMEWORK: Use your PRONOUN chart to figure out these PRONOUNS if you do not understand which case to use.

- 1) Can you come to the show with me, John, and Sarah?
(John, Sarah, and me.)
- 2) Ariel and me are the first girls in the class to climb to the top of Mt. Tora. (Ariel and I)
- 3) Sam, Slim, and him built a small engine for that cart without the help of me and Bub. (Sam, Slim, and he; Bub and me)
- 4) Please bring me and him some of that special cable for the brakes on the cart. (him and me)
- 5) Did you know that me and him went to kindergarten together. (he and I)
- 6) If Jack and her were going to go, they would be here by now. (she)
- 7) Him and her will be the first to crash their surfboards. (He and she)
- 8) She and them will help clean up after the party. (they)
- 9) Him and me will carry all the food to the beach. (He and I)
- 10) You, him, and her should pick up all that trash you left. (He, she, and you)

WEDNESDAY - Week 5

VOCABULARY QUIZ words 86-90

Wednesday - Grammar Quiz – Week 5 -

- 1) Hand out (or draw on board) a blank double PRONOUN chart; students are to fill in the answers for both Nominative and Objective Case PRONOUNS.
 - 2) Always list yourself as (first or last) PRONOUN in a series.
(last)
 - 3) Explain what Nominative Case PRONOUNS are used for.
 - 4) What is an ANTECEDENT? (The NOUN the PRONOUN replaces.)
-

COMPUTER GRAMMAR LESSON:

www.Englishgrammarhelp.com

GM Grammar Lesson – Review PRONOUNS game.

WEDNESDAY – Week 5 - HOMEWORK:

Correct all PRONOUNS in the following sentences.

1. Stacy and her were supposed to call you and I earlier today. (I, me)
2. When we arrived at the beach, him and me were too tired to go surfing. (He and I)
3. He and me love to go snowboarding with she and him. (I, her)
4. My brother and him are the best riders on the ranch. (he)
5. The funniest thing happened to she and me. (her)
6. Will lent us bikes for John and she. (her)
7. The coach brought Slim and I huge candy bars after our race. (me)
8. It was so nice of you to invite John and I to ride with you. (me)
9. Us girls are planning a party at the beach shack today.
10. Him and I will arrive early to clean up the shack for they and her. (he, them)

Review Vocabulary 91-95

THURSDAY - Week 5

VOCABULARY QUIZ words 91-95

Thursday - Grammar Quiz:

- 1) What determines a PRONOUN'S case? (Its use in a sentence.)
- 2) What are the PRONOUNS used for the OBJECTS of sentences? (Objective Case PRONOUNS.)
- 3) What are the PRONOUNS used for the SUBJECTS of sentences? (Nominative Case PRONOUNS.)
- 4) What modifies a NOUN or PRONOUN? (ADJECTIVE)
- 5) What modifies a VERB? (ADVERB)

COMPUTER GRAMMAR LESSON:

www.Englishgrammarhelp.com

Review the PRONOUN game. Observe the difference between PRONOUNS used for SUBJECTS and OBJECTS in a sentence.

.....

Instructions: Drag & Drop the Objective Pronouns.

NOMINATIVE	OBJECTIVE
I	Me	You (pl.)	Jump
You (Sing)	You (Sing)	Go
He, She, It	Him, Her, It
We	Us
You (plural)
They	Them		The

Good job! Keep going!

©2003 Grammar Mechanics™

THURSDAY – Week 5 - HOMEWORK: Pronoun Case
Complete the worksheet for homework.

1. Him and her made money on the skateboard project.
(He and she)
2. At the game he and me sat between home plate and first base. (I)
3. Since graduation Sam and him traveled throughout the Europe. (he)
4. Pro and me want the San Diego Padres baseball team to win this season. (I)
5. Did you remember to fill out the match applications for he and I? (him and me)
6. Greg and her will pick up the team at the airport this afternoon. (she)
7. The owner of that truck is him. (he)
8. Give George and I all your leftover hotdogs. (I, me)
9. Can him and her come with me to the lake? (he and she)
10. Whom was that calling from the cliff? (Who)

FRIDAY - Week 5

VOCABULARY QUIZ words 81-100

Friday – Week 5 - Grammar Quiz: Worksheet with both Nominative and Objective Case PRONOUNS.

1. It was (him, he) that took the car keys.
2. Mark brought Dave and (she, her) with him last night.
3. (We, Us) guys will drive the herd of cattle to the ranch.
4. That small runner is about to pass Don and (he, him).
5. It was (me, I) who answered the emergency call.
6. (Who, Whom) are you going to ride with to the dance?
7. The sailors saw (they, them) floating on the over turned boat.
8. The baby reached for his mother and (I, me).
9. Could it be (they, them) who lost their luggage?
10. It was (us, we) who brought the canoes to the lake.

WEEK 5 – OBJECTIVE CASE Pronouns

PRINTABLE LESSONS, QUIZZES, AND TESTS.

MONDAY - Week 5 - Objective Case Pronouns

NOTEBOOK GRAMMAR LESSON:

Present the PRONOUN chart for both NOMINATIVE and OBJECTIVE CASE PRONOUNS. Students should fill in the empty chart below with the NOMINATIVE and OBJECTIVE CASE PRONOUNS.

(Printable EMPTY chart below)

I, YOU, HE, SHE, IT, WE, YOU, THEY
ME, YOU, HIM, HER, IT, US, YOU, THEM

		PRONOUN CHART
	NOMINATIVE CASE	OBJECTIVE CASE
	(SINGULAR)	(SINGULAR)
1st Person	I	ME
2nd Person	YOU	YOU
3rd Person	HE, SHE, IT	HIM, HER, IT
	(PLURAL)	(PLURAL)
1st Person	WE	US
2nd Person	YOU	YOU
3rd Person	THEY	THEM

PRONOUN CHART

	FILL-IN	PRONOUN CHART
	NOMINATIVE CASE	OBJECTIVE CASE
	(SINGULAR)	(SINGULAR)
1st Person
2nd Person
3rd Person
	(PLURAL)	(PLURAL)
1st Person
2nd Person
3rd Person

Teacher's Notes: Continue to emphasize that NOMINATIVE and OBJECTIVE CASE PRONOUNS correlate to the SUBJECTS and DIRECT OBJECTS of a sentence.

MONDAY - HOMEWORK: -

OBJECTIVE CASE PRONOUN

Fill in a PRONOUN chart with both the NOMINATIVE AND OBJECTIVE CASE PRONOUNS.

Complete the following sentences.

- 1) Bring the tickets for (he/him)_____ and (her/him)_____.
- 2) Did you see (she/her) _____ or (I/me)_____ at the party?
- 3) We saw you and (them/they)_____ scuba diving this morning.
- 4) You should ask (she/her)_____ if she knows (he/him)_____.
- 5) Give the firecrackers to (he/him)_____ and (me/I)_____.

		PRONOUN CHART
	NOMINATIVE CASE	OBJECTIVE CASE
	(SINGULAR)	(SINGULAR)
1st Person
2nd Person
3rd Person
	(PLURAL)	(PLURAL)
1st Person
2nd Person
3rd Person

OBJECTIVE CASE PRONOUNS -TUESDAY - Week 5

Tuesday - Grammar quiz – Correct the incorrect pronouns below:

- 1) If Jack and her were going to go, them would be here by now.
- 2) Him and she will be the first to crash their boards.
- 3) She and them will help clean up after the party.
- 4) Him and me will carry all the food to the beach.
- 5) You, him, and her should pick up all that trash you left.

TUESDAY HOMEWORK: Correct only the incorrect pronouns.
Use your PRONOUN chart to figure out these PRONOUNS if you do not understand which case to use.

- 1) Can you come to the show with me, John, and Sarah?
- 2) Ariel and me are the first girls in the class to climb to the top of Mt. Tora.
- 3) Sam, Slim, and him built a small engine for that cart without the help of me and Bub.
- 4) Please bring me and him some of that special cable for the brakes on the cart.
- 5) Did you know that me and him went to kindergarten together.
- 6) If Jack and her were going , they would be here by now.
- 7) Him and her will be the first to crash their surfboards.
- 8) She and them will help clean up after the party.
- 9) Him and me will carry all the food to the beach.
- 10) You, him, and her should pick up all that trash you left.

WEDNESDAY - Week 5 - Objective Case Pronouns

Wednesday Grammar Quiz – Pronouns

- 1) Hand out (or draw on board) a blank double PRONOUN chart; students are to fill in the answers for both Nominative and Objective Case PRONOUNS.
- 2) Always list yourself as (first or last) PRONOUN in a series.
- 3) Explain what Nominative Case PRONOUNS are used for.
- 4) What is an ANTECEDENT?

WEDNESDAY HOMEWORK: Pronouns

Correct all PRONOUNS in the following sentences.

1. Stacy and her were supposed to call you and I earlier today.
2. When we arrived at the beach, him and me were too tired to go surfing.
3. He and me love to go snowboarding with she and him.
4. My brother and him are the best riders on the ranch.
5. The funniest thing happened to she and me.
6. Will lent us bikes for John and she.
7. The coach brought Slim and I huge candy bars after our race.
8. It was so nice of you to invite John and I to ride with you.
9. Us girls are planning a party at the beach shack today.
10. Him and I will arrive early to clean up the shack for they and her.

THURSDAY - Week 5 - Objective Case Pronouns

Thursday - Grammar Quiz: Pronouns

- 1) What determines a PRONOUN'S case?
- 2) What are the PRONOUNS used for the OBJECTS of sentences?
- 3) What are the PRONOUNS used for the SUBJECTS of sentences?
- 4) What modifies a NOUN or PRONOUN?
- 5) What modifies a VERB?

THURSDAY HOMEWORK: Complete the worksheet for homework.

1. Him and her made money on the skateboard project
2. At the game he and me sat between home plate and first base.
3. Since graduation Sam and him traveled throughout the Europe.
4. Pro and me want the San Diego Padres baseball team to win this season.
5. Did you remember to fill out the match applications for he and I?
6. Greg and her will pick up the team at the airport this afternoon.
7. The owner of that truck is him.
8. Give George and I all your leftover hotdogs.
9. Can him and her come with me to the lake?
10. Whom was that calling from the cliff?

FRIDAY - Week 5

GRAMMAR QUIZ: Identify the proper PRONOUN use in each sentence.

1. It was (him, he) that took the car keys.
2. Mark brought Dave and (she, her) with him last night.
3. (We, Us) guys will drive the herd of cattle to the ranch.
4. That small runner is about to pass Don and (he, him).
5. It was (me, I) who answered the emergency call.
6. (Who or Whom) are you going to ride with to the dance?
7. The sailors saw (they, them) floating on the over turned boat.
8. The baby reached for his mother and (I, me).
9. Could it be (they, them) who lost their luggage?
10. It was (us, we) who brought the canoes to the lake.